CONSENT

LEARNING INTENTION

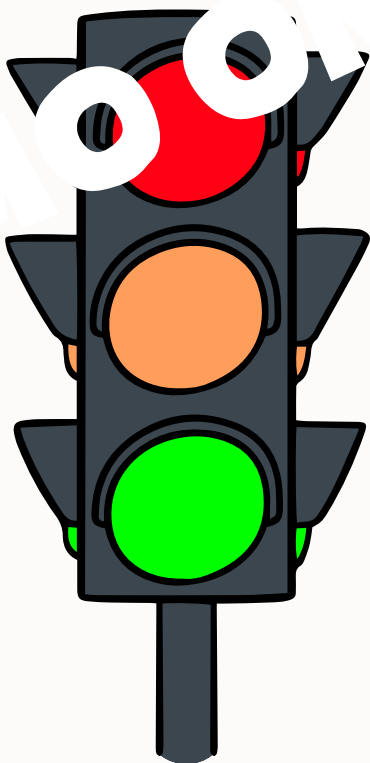

We are learning how to give, ask and deny consent in a range of situations.

SUCCESS CRITERIA

CHECK IN

Circle the statement that best applies to you:

RED

This topic makes me uncomfortable, and I will listen but do not want to participate in discussions.

ORANGE

I am interested in this topic, but am a bit unsure how involved I want to be in group conversations.

GREEN

I am excited to talk about consent and feel comfortable being part of class discussions.

WHAT IS CONSENT?

OXFORD DICTIONARY

Permission for something to happen or agreement to do something.

BRITANNICA DICTIONARY

To agree to do or allow something to give permission for something to happen or be done.

KIDS HELP LINE

Consent means freely choosing to say 'yes' to an activity. It's always clearly communicated - there should be no room for doubt.

TALK NOW!

Consent means verbally giving clear and enthusiastic permission or agreeing to something willingly, without feeling pressured or forced.

What is your definition of consent?

SCENARIO #1

Think of the scenario from 3 different people's views and write from their perspective.
You will act as Ryder, Phoebe and a bystander.
